

www.cubic.com/careers

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Electrical Engineering Intern -

REQ #:

Location: Cubic Global Defense - San Diego

Job Summary: While seeking a degree in electrical engineering, supports the analysis, design, modification and testing of electronic systems for designated products and/or customer applications. This position typically works under close supervision and direction.

ESSENTIAL JOB DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Supports the analysis, design, modification and testing of electronic systems for designated products and/or customer applications.
- Assists in technical support.
- Assists with system tests.
- Obtains, correlates and analyzes technical information.
- Prepares engineering documentation.
- Supports, as required, total quality management/continuous process improvement teams.

MINIMUM JOB REQUIREMENTS:

Enrolled in at least the second year of a Bachelor of Science degree program in engineering, computer science or other related technical discipline. Effective written and oral communication skills. Ability to use typical office automation products such as word processing and spreadsheets. Must be able to work in a lab environment and be able to use a computer.

Ideal candidate will be available Part time while pursuing degree.

U.S. citizenship is required.