

College of Engineering Recommended: Desktop/Laptop Specifications*

Recommended System (Windows)
Operating System	Windows 10 (64-bit)
Processor	Intel® Core i5 and up or Xeon
Memory	Memory: (16G Minimum)
Hard Drive	Hard drive: Solid State Drive (SSD or NVMe). Min 256 and Maintaining at least 20GB free space
Graphics Card	Dedicated Graphics card NVIDIA QUADRO P2000 OR P4000 (HIGH-END)

Notes:

- Make sure your laptop is Wi-Fi enabled to connect to the campus wireless network, a web camera, and has at least one USB port.
- Open computer lab available in the Physical Science building (PS231), Library 24/7 where students can access most applications needed in classes
- Some Engineering software, such as Solidworks and ANSYS, is not currently supported or very limited on MAC OS computers

*These specs are provided as a courtesy to those who are interested. These are not requirements to be a first-year engineering major